

I think the No Call List should be left alone because I have spent a lot of time during my days answering phone calls from rude, pushy, people that will not take no for an answer. I am running a small business here and I need the time answering phone calls that matter and getting my work done. Since I have been on the no call list my phone calls are cut in half and so has my time on the phone. I love it. So please leave the No Call the way it is. I would greatly appreciate it.
